We have come this far . . .

Going to pep rallies.

It may not be fast, but it's fun.

Going to classes.

The snazziest way to get anywhere.

Choosing places to go after high school.

Freedom on the open roads.

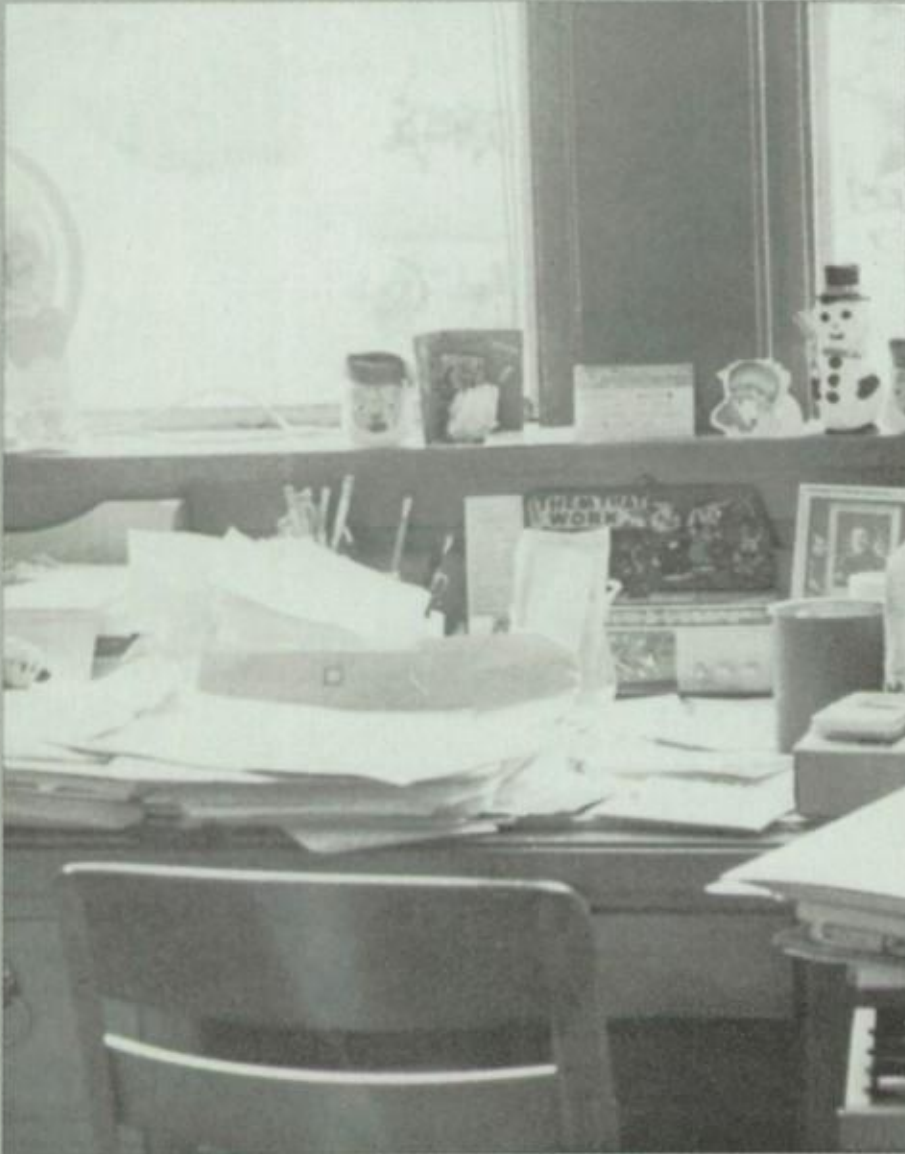

The best way to save energy.

Every year's a busy one for students at University High School, and this one has not been an exception. Our parents complain that we are always on the go, that they never see us except at breakfast or at night when they come to our rooms. Probably they wonder about us — where we spend our time, what we do, why we're always on the go. So, the yearbook staff decided to show our parents the wonderful world of the UHS student, going places in 1977. We want them to see the best hangouts in Baton Rouge, the biggest events, and the way we get to these. And we, as students, also want to hold on to our memories of 1977. Everyone agrees that Saturday's and Poet's are by far the most popular places to go on the weekend, while McDonald's and Burger King are great for quick food any time of the week. Though week nights are strictly for studying and our special events like the FHA Cake and Pie Contest or the Uniteens Christmas Party, the weekend is loaded with places to go and things to do. In the fall on most Friday nights the University High Cubs take on their opponents in football while in the winter it's everyone out to the basketball games.

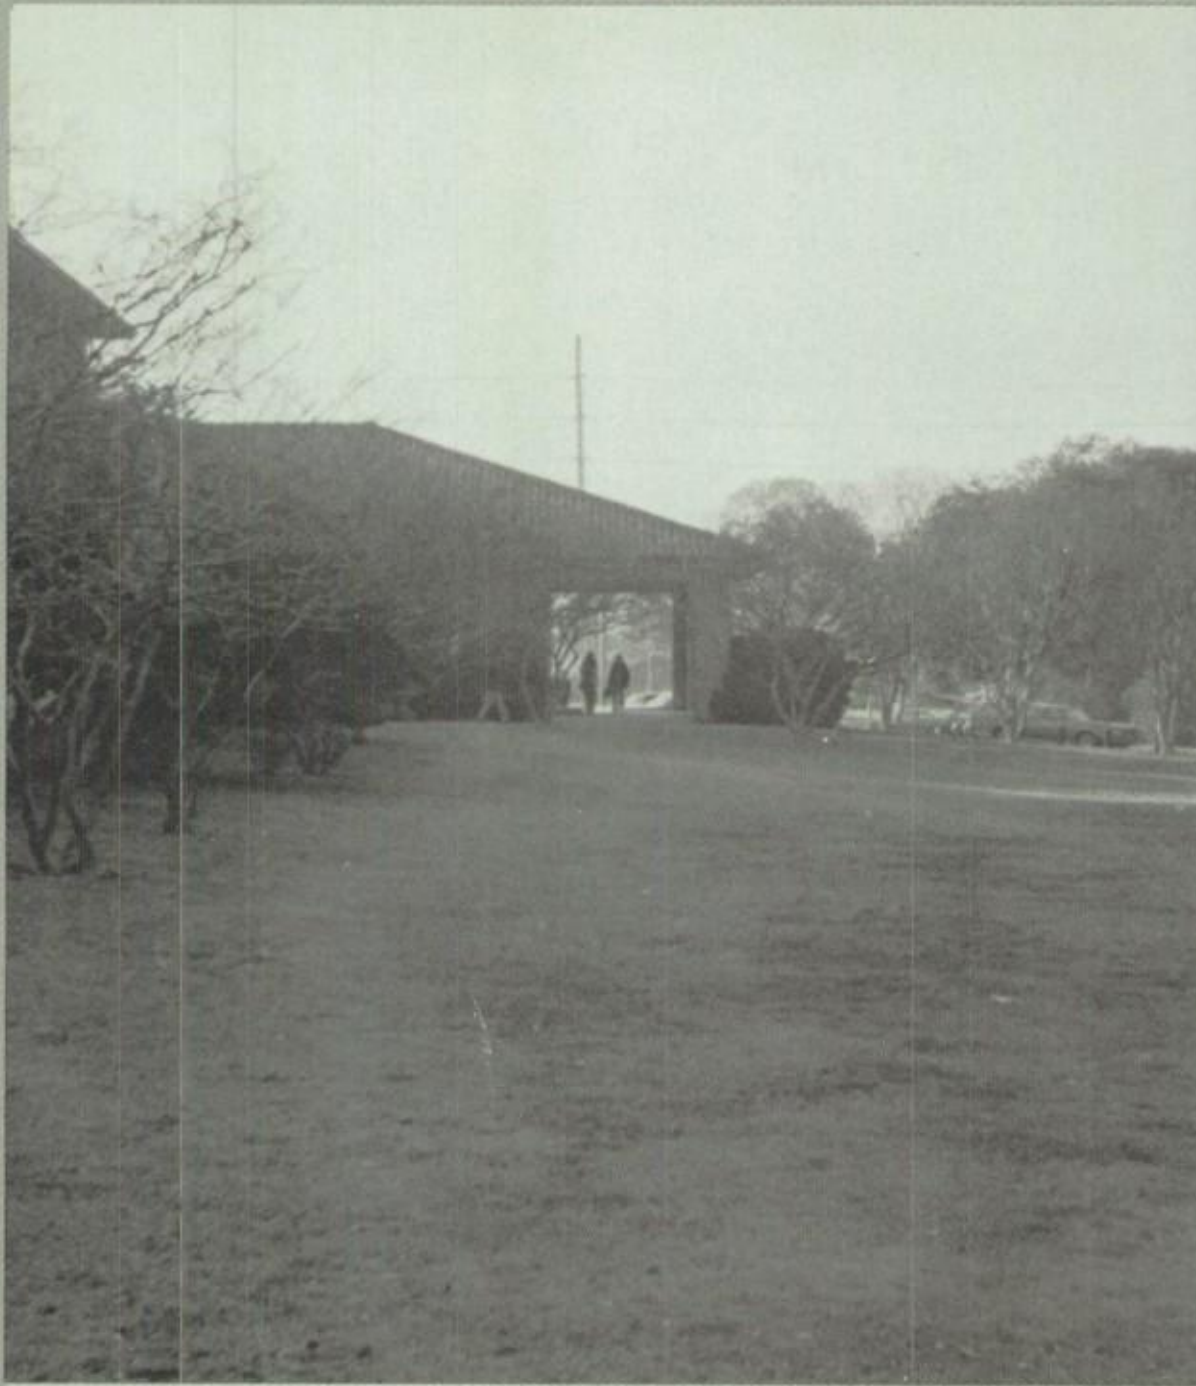

And we are going places!!!

Wheelin' around on your free time.

A teacher's haven.

Everyone enjoys a good study hall.

A statue entitled "The Mover."

Headed for home.

Ready to go home.

Although we were not voting in the Presidential election, each of us was reading news articles, listening to debates, and giving his opinion on whether the next President would be Jerry Ford or Jimmy Carter. At school our time was just as full, each of us carrying five or six courses, spending an hour for lunch and club meetings, and then going to after-school practices and more meetings. Everyone knows that to go places you have to have some way of getting there. The newest type of transportation is the skateboard. More common ways of going places are cars, motorcycles, boats, and those two age-old devices — the feet. Each year someone drives his own brand new car to school, and someone gets a 10-speed English racer or motorcycle for Christmas.

We've come this far and we are going places through school days and then throughout the rest of our lives.

FUN

FUN is:

The Home-Ec room after games;
Same old faces, no new names.
Trying hard to look eighteen;
Getting a new pair of jeans.
Slumber parties, after parties;
Rush to class, "Can't be tardy."

Just Hanging Around

U-High students have many things to do while not in classes. At lunch people go their separate ways. Some people sneak to parking lots or the football field for who knows what!!! Many people have been seen hanging around Victor Ginalloni's locker all of a sudden. We think it's because they have been trying to steal his hearts. Other than that, U-High students are just good at hanging around.

The U-High frisbee team in one of its greater moments.

Come on boy; put some pep into it.

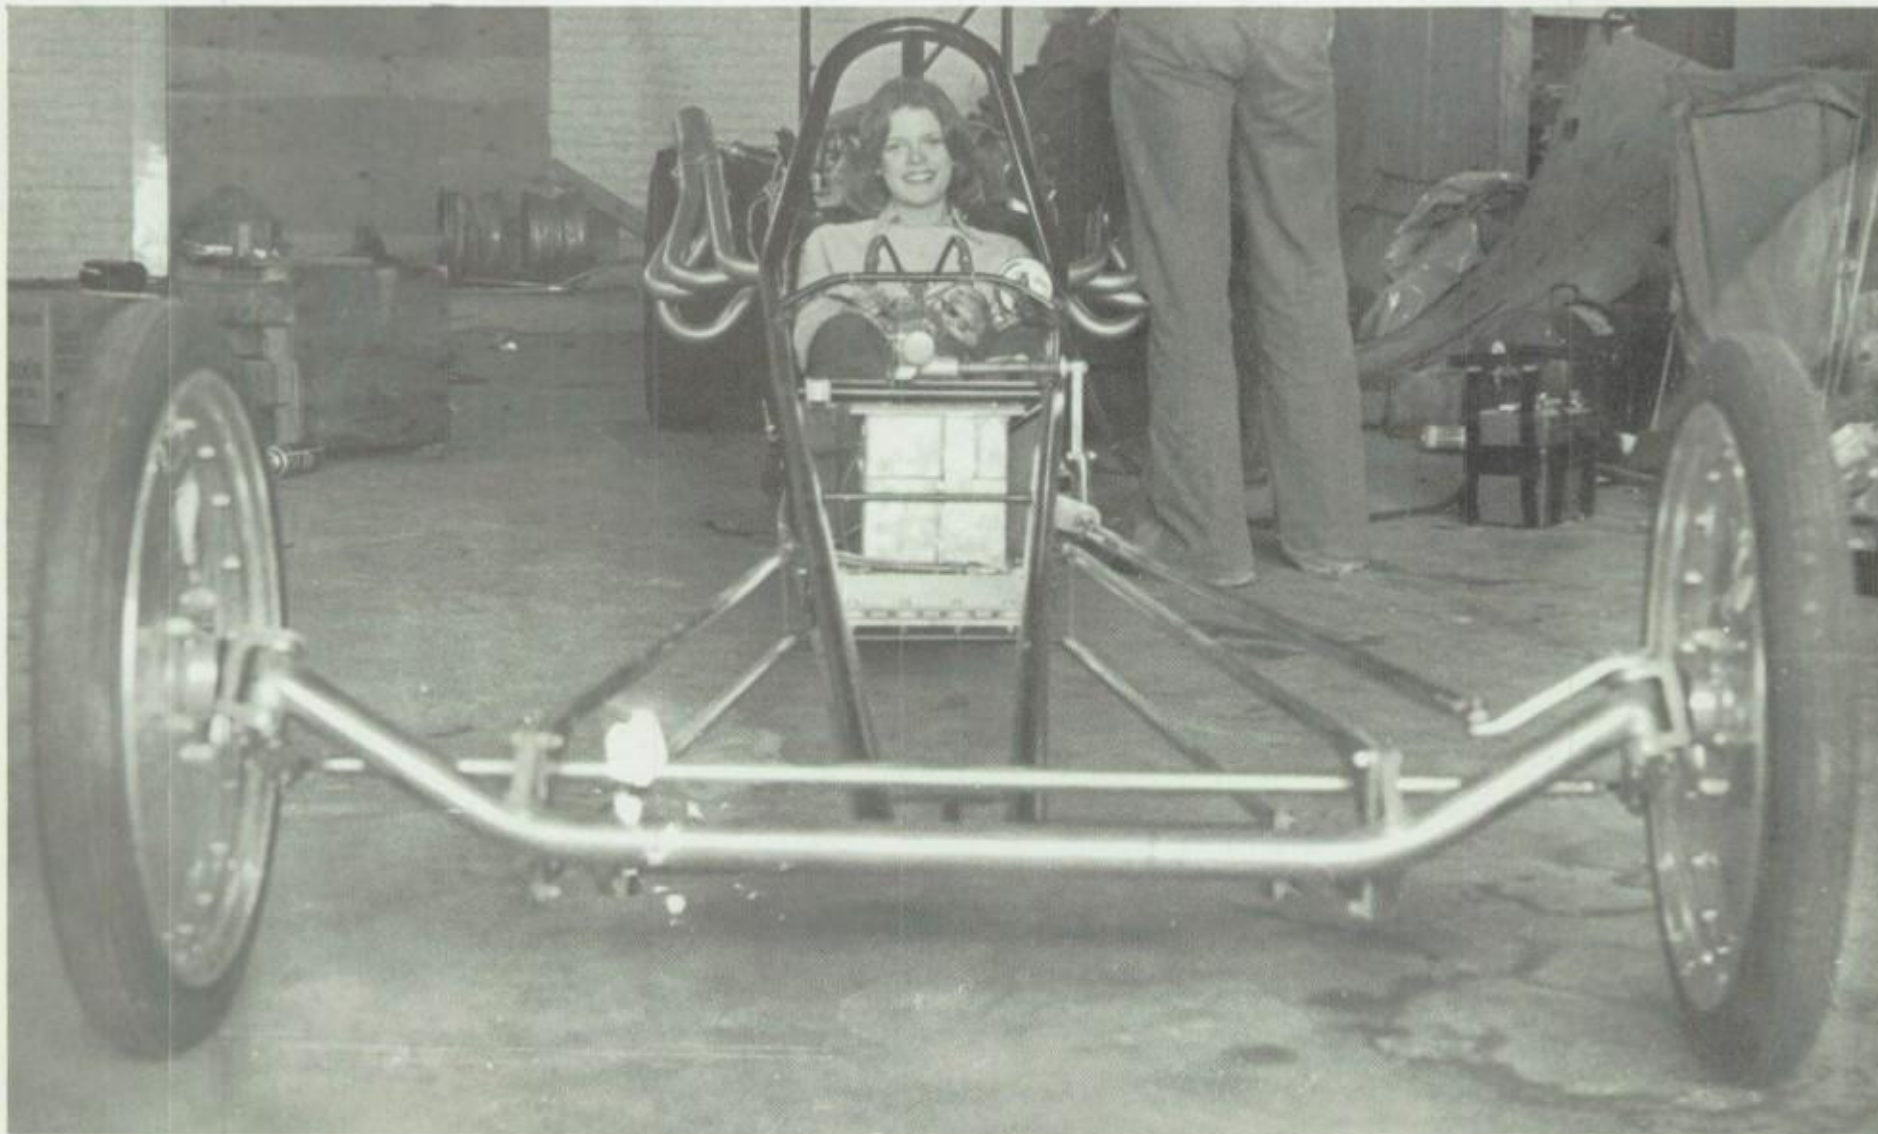

Who said the seniors were strange?

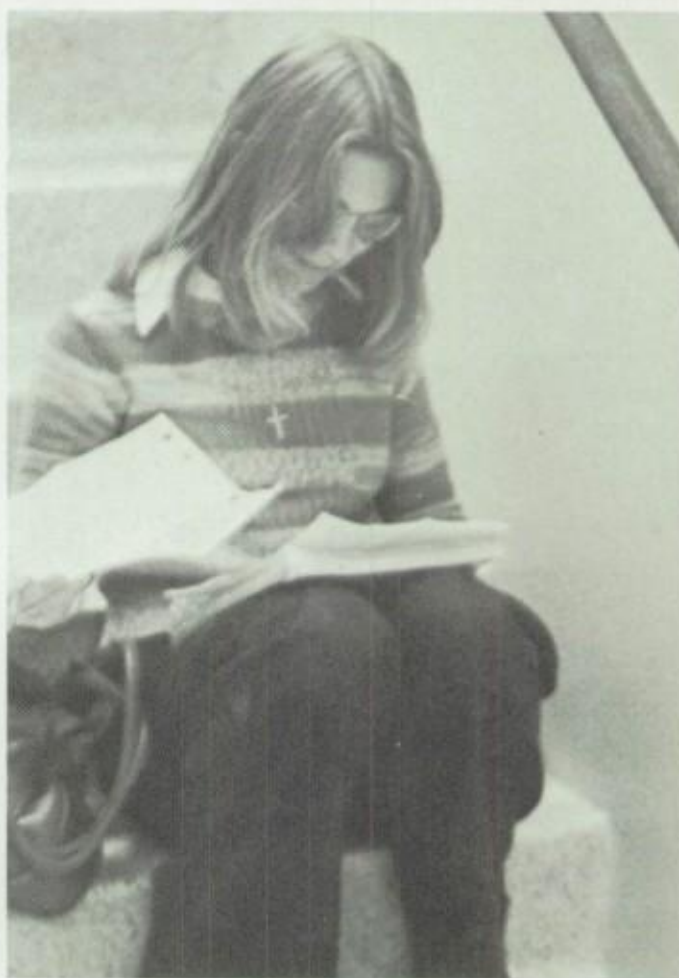

There's never a dull moment at U-High.

I bought this car with play money.

U-High students can even party at school.

If I put this one up my sleeve and the other on my hand, then I should be able to pass the test.

Junior Olympics . . .

The Senior spirit shows as the excitement of the game grows.

What is one of the most exciting weeks of the year at U-High? You guessed it: Spirit Week! And this year was one of the greatest ever. The competition was rough and no one had any idea who would win. There were huge signs and posters all over the place with slogans such as "Electrocute the Eagles!" and "Fry 'em Cubs!" Everyone wore buttons, hats, black and gold socks or anything else he could get his hands on that would show his spirit. The courtyard decorations were fantastic! But the real spotlight of Spirit Week this year fell upon the Junior Olympics, where games such as "Ping Pong Knock," "Skateboard Relay," and, of course, "The Mummy Wrap!" were played. It was a close race and Dr. Fox made sure to hold the suspense until the very last moment when he announced at the Pep Rally that the Seniors of '77 were the champs!

Com'on, Ursula! You can throw it now. Dan's not watching.

Under the Spotlights of Spirit Week.

"Hey man, watch this! I'm gonna sink it, easy!"

"Five more seconds and it's all over!"

"Come on Kyle, just a little bit farther!"

Sophomores praise their prize winning mummy.

Cubbie Capers . . .

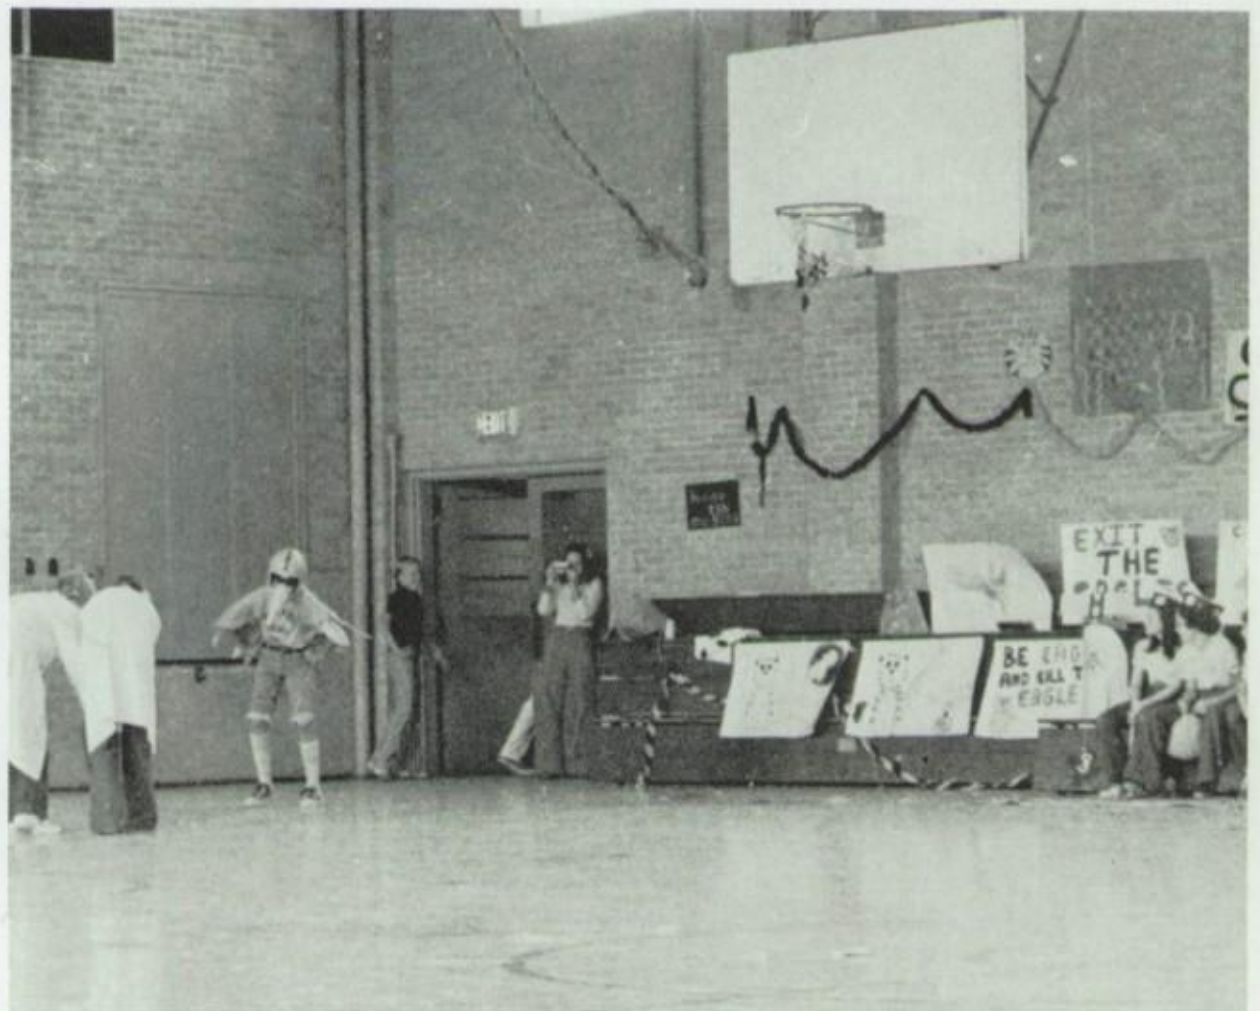

Not knowing of their coming victory, 7-B cheers and cheers and cheers and . . .

Curly shows how talented he is in the field of acting.

What's all the excitement about? Cubbie Capers! There were a lot of surprises in this year's week of Cubbie competition. The spirited costumes were really wild. The classroom decorations included everything from posters to crepe paper marvels. The cheers were loud and the skits were clever. The BIG surprise was when a roar of excitement was heard from 7-B. Not only did this class win the games; it also won the trophy. That's another first for U-High!

Sandra and Kelly, being a part of the Boosters, show their spirit by night, putting up signs and wrapping houses before the big game the next day.

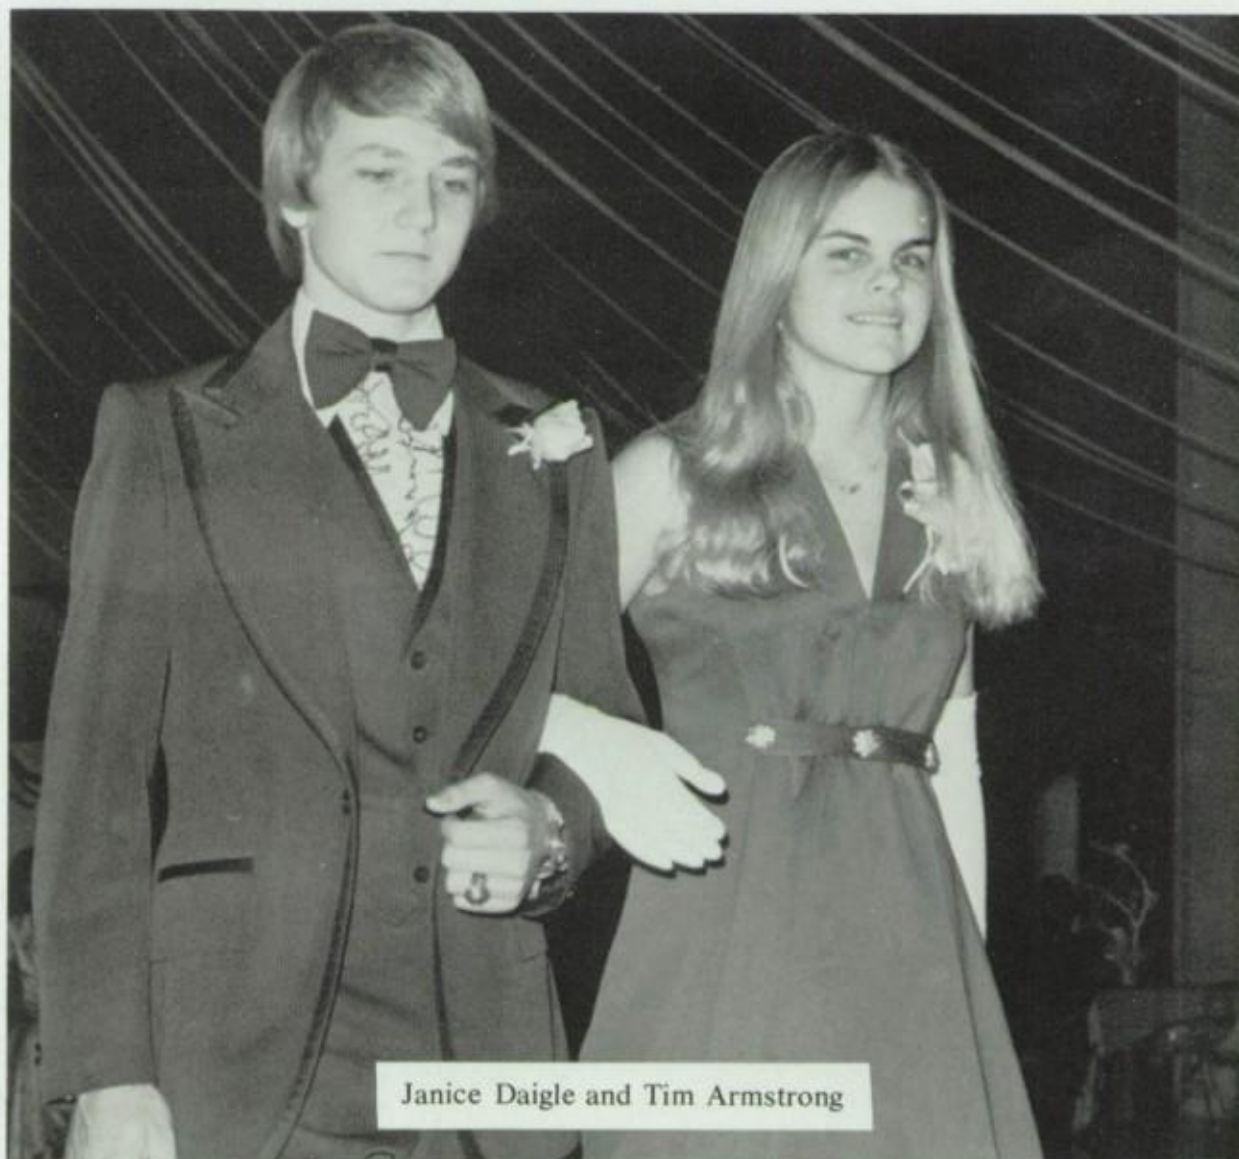

Homecoming was off to an early start this year. It began with the elections for class maids. A surprise to everyone was the three-way tie for senior maid, which was a first at U-High. Later, at the Homecoming Supper and Bonfire, many cheers were heard for Polly Nelson, who was elected Queen of the Homecoming Court. The next day was a busy one, beginning when all of the football players woke up to find spirit signs on their lawns. The Pep Breakfast was a fantastic success. Everyone had plenty of doughnuts, drank lots of milk, and supported the mighty Cubs. At the pep rally the final touch of excitement was added, and everyone was roaring to win. The Court was presented during halftime of the game against Hanson. After the game was over, the final touch of the day was added when the Homecoming Dance began in the courtyard with Charlie Pappy providing music.

Winter Formal Court '76-'77

"Fantasy in Frost" was not only the theme for this year's Winter Formal but also the perfect description of how it was. The planning for it began early in the year. To raise the money for it this year, for the first time, all the classes worked together and held a garage sale, which was very successful. December 2, 1976, the court was announced, and screams of happiness were heard throughout the halls. Then plans for the decorations were made, and everyone helped out by bringing in their flocked trees. The band chosen to play was "Fat Chance". It provided the music which added a wonderful touch to an unforgettable evening.

SPIRIT

SPIRIT is:
 Yelling, shouting, always cheering;
 Jumping, watching, never fearing;
 Knowing that the Cubs will win. (Usually)
 SPIRIT is also:
 Dancing, twirling, leading chants;
 Suffering in hot marching band pants.
 Performing shows during half-time:
 "Keep in line! It's looking fine!"
 SPIRIT is still:
 Pep Rallies at one o'clock;
 Booster Caravans, "Support our Jocks!"

. . . and The Band Played On.

"Left face!" "Right face!" "About face!" "Band, parade rest!" These were some of the things the marching band members heard as they started the year. Marching band members were at school even before school started for practice. They got new T-Shirts, to everyone's surprise and joy. That made the band uniforms much more comfortable, without the coats at first, and then when it was cold, the T-shirts under the jackets felt good. They played "Brandy," "Evil Woman," "Cabaret," "Miss Liberty," "Broadway Salute," "The Games People Play," and last but not least, "The Hustle."

John Jumonville was one of the few seniors in the band.

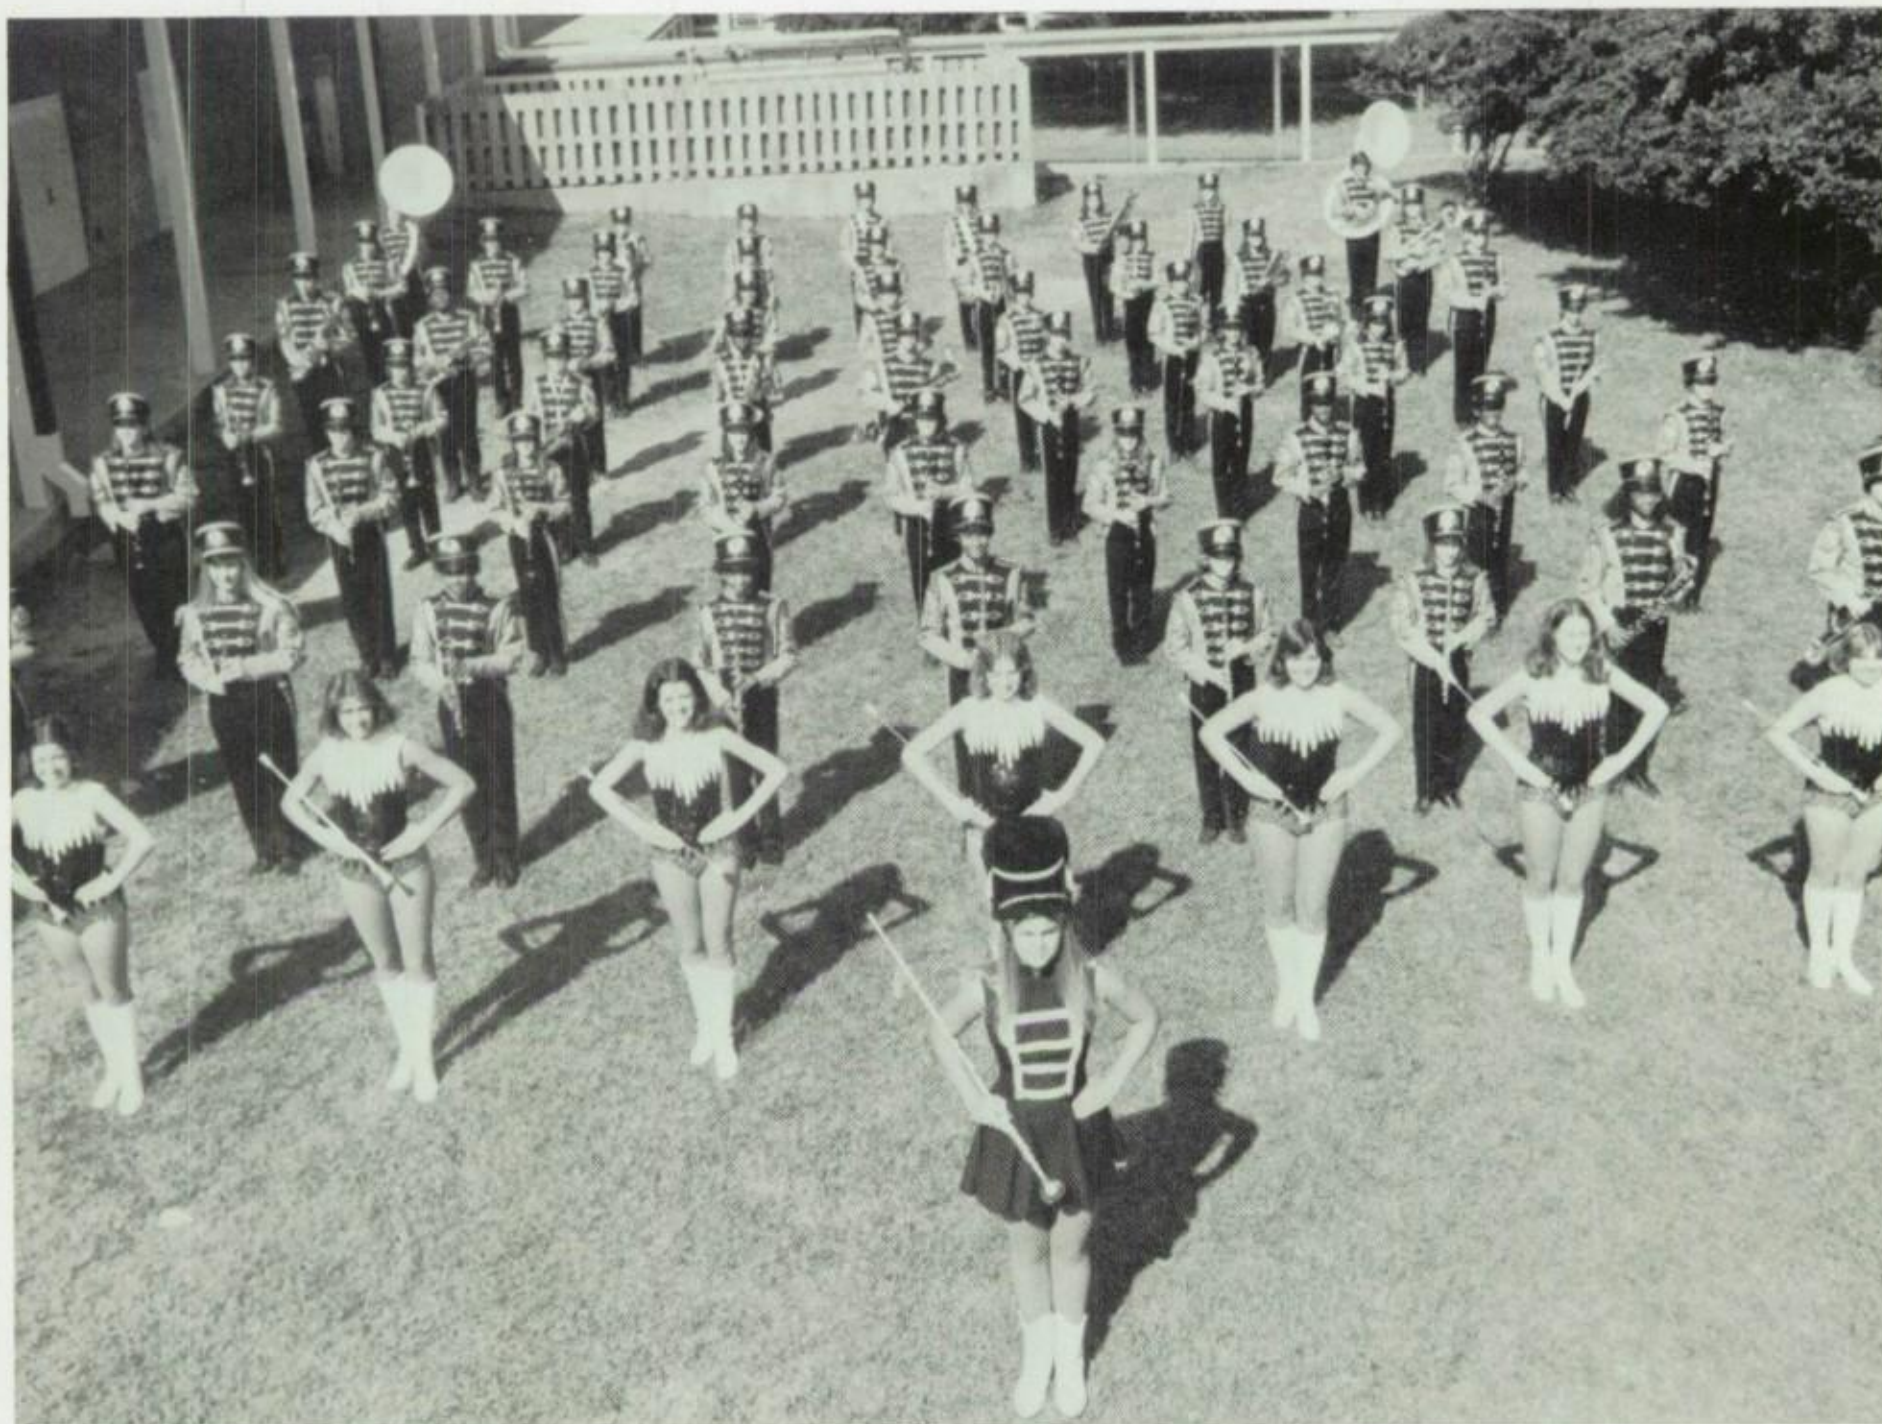

The T-shirts felt good, especially when the band was packed like sardines.

The band played "Feelings" at the Homecoming game against Hanson.

The “Hustle,” “Feelings” and “Broadway Salutes.”

Band members were: John Braymer, Gay Gamble, Tim Guillot, Bill Daigle, Bliss Haymon, David Horton, Lisa French, John Jordan, Gennie Kennon, Frank Miksa, Bobby Moore, John Murrill, Catherine Myer, Kristi Nelson, Glynda Poydras, John Taylor, Ellison Travis, Tom Travis, Jayne White, Ben Williams, Rod Roberts, Susan Bankston, Becky Beeson, Pam Brown, Cathy Daigle, Charlie Daniel, Scott Gremillion, Grady Hall, Dawn Harris, Ann Johnson, Nancy Lord, Bobby Lyles, Nancy Mann, Allan Morris, Tim Patin, Stephanie Reddoch, Renee Roberts, Richard Roof, Kevin Armstrong, Julie Cox, Catherine Gordon, Maureen Martin, Ryan Roberts, Donna Wales, Ross Wheeler, Stan Williams, Vickie Wells, Sam Morrison, Allyson Bahlinger, Suzanne Belleau, Jim Hall, Charles Myer, Nancy Nolen, Nancy Roberts, Sharon Sale, Janice Daigle, Laura Evans, Kay Fort, Yvonne Guillot, Lydia Halle, John Jumonville, Robert Simmons, Mary Sue Socolofsky.

The Majorettes!

The majorettes all worked hard this year. They did shows to "Brandy," "Hustle," "Swat," "Broadway Salute," and several others. They went to majorette camp last summer and learned a lot. Mary Sue, head majorette, did a great deal of the choreography.

Majorettes: Maureen Martin, Suzanne Belleau, Donna Wales, Mary Sue Socolofsky, Head, Lydia Haile, Vicky Wells.

Majorettes perform even in the wind.

Come on, girls; get it together!

Mary Sue's leadership proved to be a great asset to their success.

It's not that cold, girls.

Pep Band

The Pep Band, under the direction of Janice Daigle, played at the pep rallies, the bonfire and the Pep Breakfast. You could hear it play many of the newest hits including; "Swat," "Evil Woman," and "Games People Play." The members showed their Cub Spirit throughout the entire year.

They Cheer For The Cubs

The 1976-1977 U-High Cheerleaders were Lydia Wales, Kelli Wiemer, Laura Timmons, Donna Wilson, Diana Upp, and Mary Jane McKernan. They attended camp during the summer, and were voted one of the top eight squads out of the one hundred and eight attending. They worked hard learning new cheers and won many awards, such as two spirit sticks and four superior ribbons. During the year they cheered the Cubs on at pep rallies and all sports events.

Sponsors

Susan really tells it like it is.

The football players enjoy the treats Susan and Linda prepared for them.

All right, Linda; just hand the boys their treats so we can get on with the pep rally.

The sponsors started working hard last year during spring practice. The spring sports banquet was their first big event. During summer practice they served quick-kick at the breaks. They also served at fall practice. They made locker stickers for the pep rallies on Fridays and served quick-kick and cheered the team on to a victory. They also served quick-kick at the basketball games this year. All in all the year was busy for Linda Swanson and Susan McDuff, sponsors.

Don't give up yet, Linda; the season's not over.

Spirit Steppers

Captain Sondra Oliver, Co-Captain Dea Harman, Addie Ann Smith, Nan Harman, Lea Ann Whitehurst, Ginger Garner, Janne Lord.

The Spirit Steppers really worked hard during the school year. They practice many songs such as "Cabaret," "Evil Women," "The Swat Theme" and other. They obtained lots of "fringe" benefits from their flashy new uniforms. Their job is to perform routines at the Pep Rallies and also at the games and half times. They performed on those occasions with the greatest of ease, tempo, and true spirit. For that's what they are, showers of Cub spirit: The Spirit Steppers.

Dea smiles her approval.

Steppin' out with the Boosters

Go, fight, win. Go, fight, win . . .

The Boosters were outstanding this year. They did many special shows including pinwheels, a company front show, block formation of U.H.S. and several different march drills. Before the games they would meet and go cruising through campus on their way to the game. Their hard work showed throughout the year in their proper and complete accuracy.

U-High vs. Ascension Catholic
Sept. 2

Our mighty Campus Cubs trucked on across the river to play in the Port Allen Jamboree and waltzed away with a 6-0 victory over the always-tough Bulldogs from down river. Mark "Rayfield" Sigler passed 27 yards to Dedric "Oots" Morris to set up the score. Looking like we had it made in the shade, the Cubs almost snatched defeat out of the jaws of victory. The Dog's Q.B. found an opening in the line and raced all the way down to the Cub 27 yard line, but Gray "Rot" Barrow stopped the speedster with a game-saving tackle, and the Cubs went back home with their first victory of the year.

"I hope this football has air in it, and not cement."

U-High vs. Newman Sept. 10, 1976

With the rest of District 8-A playing such pigskin powerhouses as St. Al of Fonzeville and the Quad Academy, the Cubs had to face up to Newman, a top AA team. The first half of the game was as exciting as a lighthouse keeper's convention, with neither team able to mount any sort of offense. U-High exploded in the second half, however, with Jeff Poydras, the "Old Man," chugging 71 stripes for the only score of the night. The Newman Greenies came right back to drive to the Cub three, but Gray Barrow batted away a fourth-down pass to salt away the victory. Three Newman fumbles in the fourth quarter and the outstanding Cub defense kept the Greenies from scoring and the Cubs held on for their second 6-0 victory.

U-High vs. White Castle Sept. 17, 1976

Our undefeated Dalrymple Drive Dwellers made the trip to Iberville Parish to play the first game ever in White Castle's new Bulldog Stadium. The Bulldog backfield, consisting of full-back Mack Boatner and Dennis Valentine constantly ran through, around, and over the Cub defense in the 29-7 rout. Things looked bad for U-High as Boatner went 77 yards around end on the first play of the game. Not to be outdone the Cub offense came right back and tied the score with Sigler sneaking over from the one. A 24-yard pass to Danny "Shiney" McGlynn with 15 yards more tacked on for a facemasking penalty on the Dogs was the big play. The Cubs couldn't do anything from then on, and W.C. did all but massacre the hapless Cubs.

Sig comes through as the line "holds."

Cubs Break Even

UHS vs. JOHN CURTIS
Sept. 24, 1976

The defending AA state champs took a long bus ride up the river to flush the Cubs down the John (Curtis) 27-0. The Cubs were never in the game, as from the second play from scrimmage, a Patriot picked off an errant Sigler pass and returned it to the U-High 38. J.C.'s 25, Chris Stropolo, then faked out everyone in the stadium with an 18-yard scoring jaunt to put Curtis ahead 7-0. After receiving the next Cub punt, Stropolo chunked a 51-yard bomb to set up the score. After a half and two TD's by the Patriots, U-High finally got a break when John Beck recovered a fumble at John Curtis' 34, but the Cubs failed to capitalize. It was a valiant effort by the Cubs as they lost to the eventual AA State Runner-ups.

Breck attempts a score while Brett Furr looks on in amazement.

UHS vs. HANSON
October 1, 1976

The Tigers of Hanson came to town with revenge on their minds as they plastered our fearless jockmen 28-7. The Cubs held the explosive Tigers to a 7-7 deadlock until the middle of the third quarter of the Homecoming fray. Hanson's All-State Tailback, Craig Pellerin, then took matters into his own hands as he trucked for 167 yards and 3 TD's to bury the Cubs. It was the second game in a row that U-High played the class of the field as the Tigers went on to claim all the marbles in Class A.

The Cubs return to the huddle after a big play.

UHS vs. PORT SULPHUR
October 8, 1976

The Cubs traveled to the end of the world on a freezing night to play Port Sulphur. Just about everyone wished he had stayed home as the Broncos blasted U-High 26-0. It was a tough game for U-High as it lost the services of Jay McKernan, who broke his ankle. It was a long bus ride home, but the Cubs could look forward to District 8-A competition.

The Knights struggled to recover from the smoke inhalation administered by Derek Davis.

UHS vs. OPEN DATE
October 15, 1976

The Cubs returned home for the traditional battle with the Open Date Orangutangs. The game was a tight defensive struggle with neither team able to mount a serious offensive drive. The game once again ended in a scoreless tie, keeping the series even at 0-0-61.

UHS vs. SUNSHINE
October 22, 1976

The Cubs cruised down the River Road to open district competition against Sunshine and came away with a 27-0 victory. The Cubs took the opening kick-off and went all the way with Mark Sigler passing 10 yards to Brent Bankston for the score. Gray Barrow's PAT split the uprights and the Cubs were in business. U-High then put its offense in high gear with Jeff Poydras scoring twice and John Francioni adding one score and 135 stripes. Cub spirits were high as U-High prepared for a cruise game with St. John.

"Okay you guys, on this play I'll trip him, you grab his face mask, and you poke him in the eye."

Sig thunders down the line as a terrified "Zebra" runs for cover.

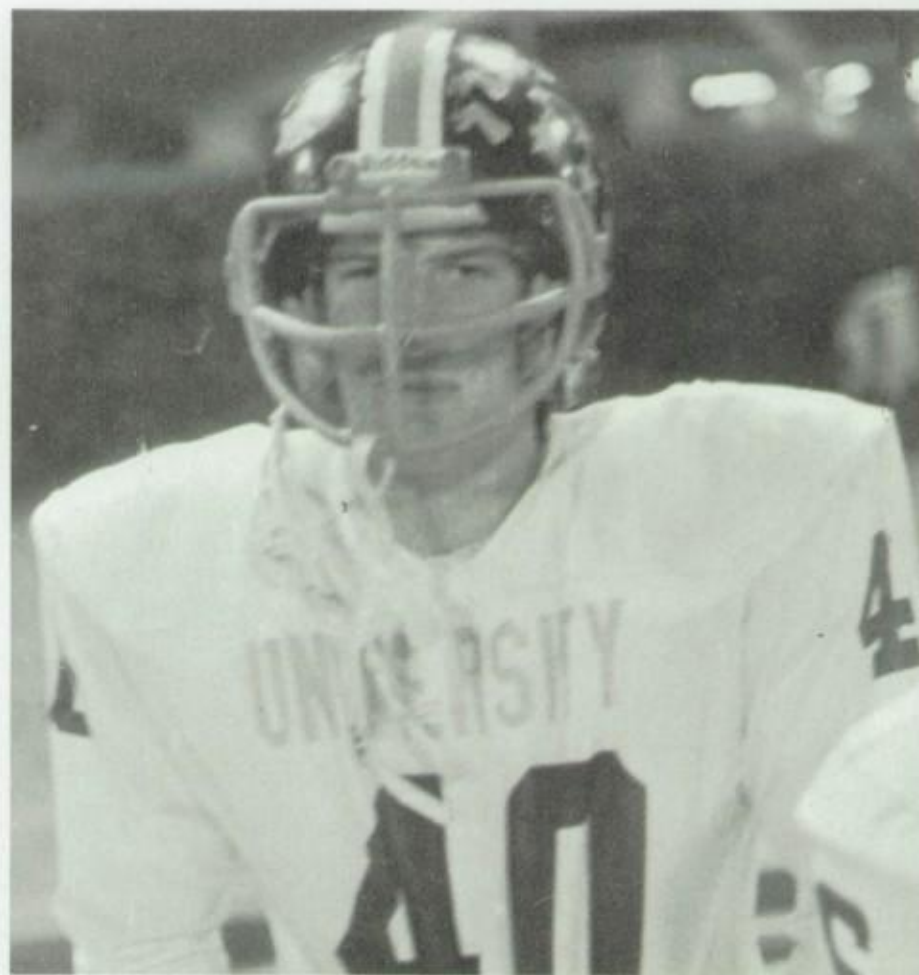

U-High Beats Episcopal as Usual

UHS vs. ST. JOHN
October 28, 1976

We lost.

UHS vs. SECOND WARD
November 5, 1976

The highly-ranked Second Ward Eagles came to town looking for an easy win but straggled home with a close 20-12 victory. A fired-up bunch of Cubs proved themselves by holding Vernon Robiskie to small yardages for the whole game with the exception of one play. The Eagles scored first on a 94-yard drive to take the lead 6-0. U-High came right back with a 64-yard scoring drive of its own. Mark Sigler hit TE Brent Bankston in the end zone to tie the game at 6 a piece. Neither team could do much for the rest of the half, although Second Ward drove down to the Cub two where the Cubs held like a brick wall. At the start of the third quarter, Robiskie electrified the crowd with a 76-yard TD run to put the Eagles on top 13-6. The Cubs were driving on Second Ward at the start of the fourth quarter when the Eagles picked off a stray Sigler aerial and returned it 80 yards to put Second Ward in front 20-6. U-High fought back to score another TD as Jeff Poydras rambled over from the two. U-High could be proud of the fact that we outplayed the eventual state runner-up.

UHS vs. EPISCOPAL
November 12, 1976

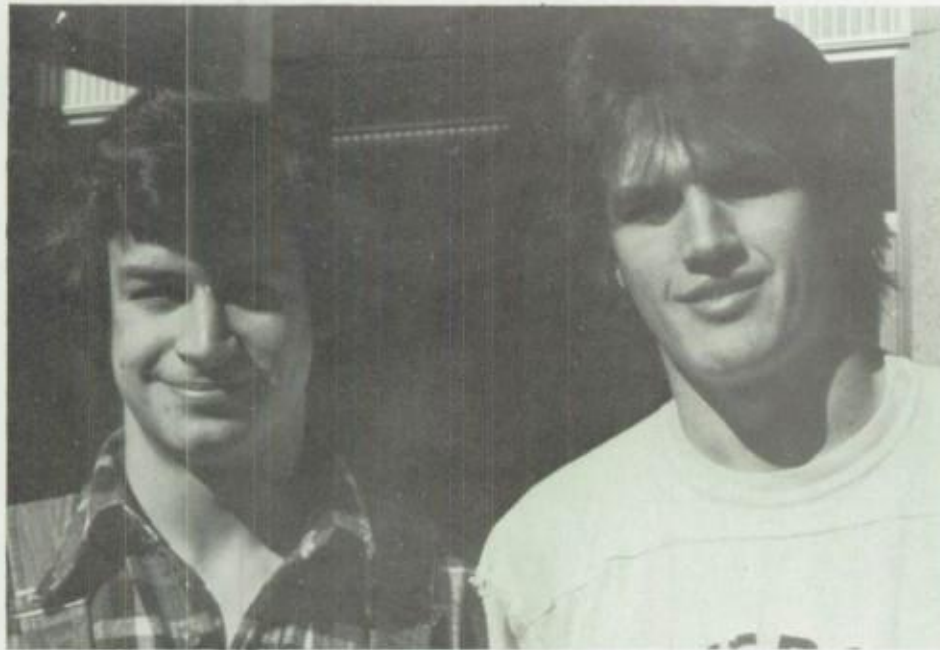

"Here! I don't want it. You take it."

The Episcopal Knights came to visit the Cubs, and the outcome, as was expected, was in favor of our gallant warriors. But things started out not so good as Episcopal jumped out to take an early lead for the first time ever against U-High. Several costly fumbles by UHS and numerous lucky plays by EHS kept the Knights in the game. To prove the whole ordeal a farce, Eddie Hardesty bulled his way over many Knights and scored on a 9-yard jaunt up the middle to tie the game. The Cubs came right back and scored again when Derek Davis smoked the entire Knight secondary and caught a 34-yard bomb from Mark Sigler to take the lead 14-7 just before the half. The Knights proved they could play football when they sustained a drive and somehow scored to close the gap to 14-13. John Francioni showed why he was All-District by running around, over, and through Episcopal as he racked up over 100 yards and scored the third TD against the Knights. Episcopal looked worse than ever as its sputtering offense and the Swiss cheese defense opened the door for U-High as we buried them 21-13. The win kept the Cubs undefeated against their arch rivals.

Following heavy losses to graduation, most sportswriters gave the Cubs little chance to win their fourth consecutive state title. They did not consider the Cubs incredible guts and determination.

The team worked out hard all summer and began practicing the first day of school. The Cubs soon found a heated rivalry in Episcopal as the Knights required the entire EHS basketball team to become runners. After a few early season victories and a district meet win over the Cubs, the Knights thought they had the state title in the bag.

However, the veteran U-High runners smelled victory; and as soon as the starting gun was fired, they took off like bats out of the fiery pit. The surprised Knight runners, who expected to see nothing but green grass before them, instead spent the entire race staring at the backs of the gold gym shorts and white shirts of the U-High Harriers.

The Cubs were led by Freshman Mark "Bionic Man" Newman in fourth place and Junior Mike "Snickers" Vickers in sixth place. Barefoot runner John "Fonse" Wright ran the fastest three miles of his life to finish ninth and Juniors Eric "Butch" Abraham and Jim "Quick Kick" Hall finished eleventh and twelfth respectively to further dump the Knights' state title hopes. Charlie "Chuck" Patterson and Jeff "Freemo Joe" Freeman outkicked several Knight

The Cubs fight hard at the end of a close game with Episcopal.

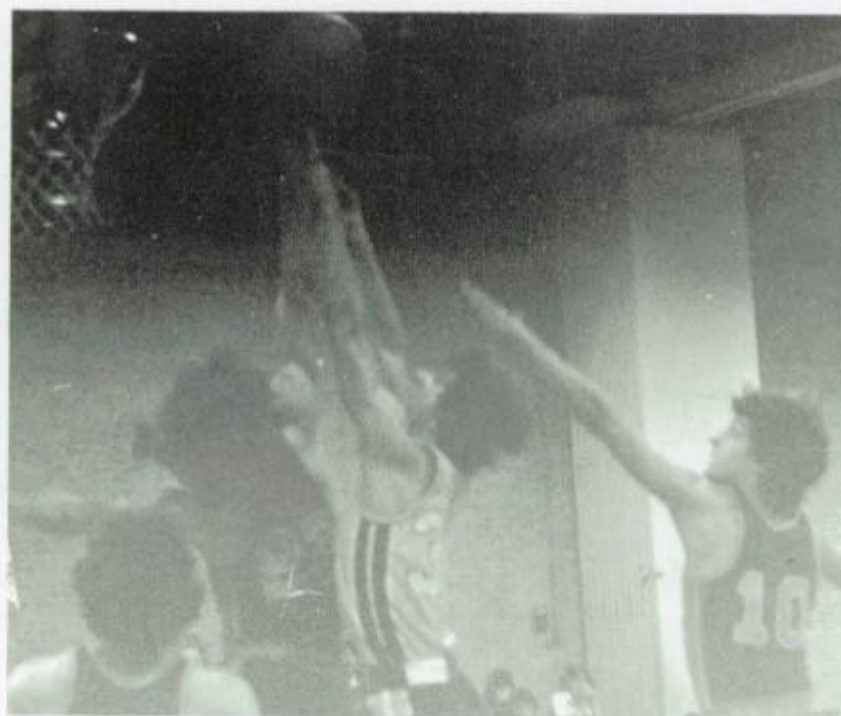

The 1976-77 basketball season proved to be one of the rowdiest ever as the Cubs played many close and exciting games. Every Tuesday and Friday night, 8-A gyms shook with the cries of "KILL, KILL, KILL." "Call some fouls you turkey" "Beat U-High." "Hey, wow man." At the time the yearbook went to the press, the Cubs were still in the thick of the 8-A race.

Reaches Out

"Look what I got!"

"Look at all those Valentines."

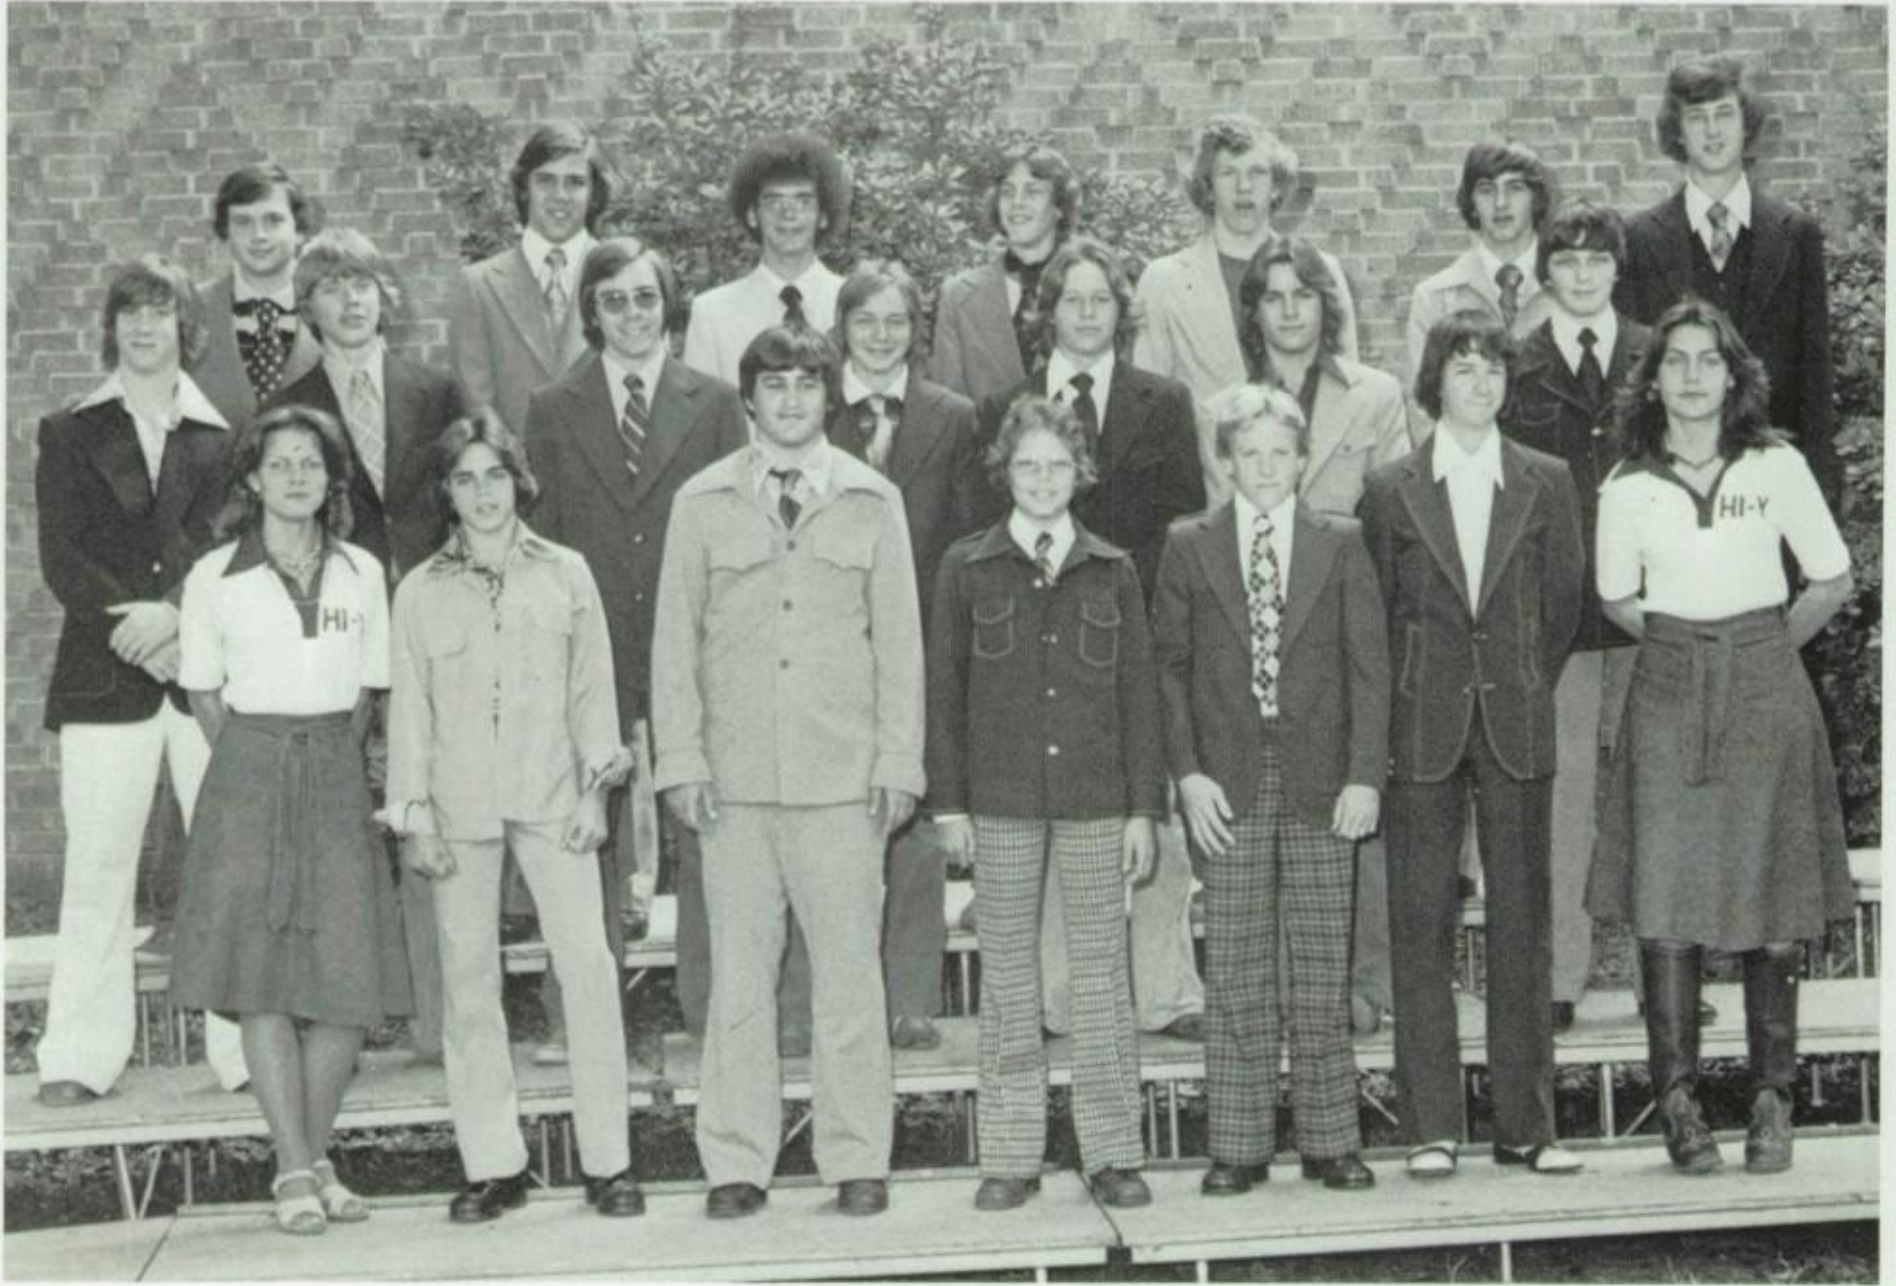

OFFICERS: Danny McGlynn, Beau; Allyson Bahlinger, Chaplain; Janice Daigle, Treasurer; Polly Nelson, Secretary; Breck Kean, Beau; Mary Sue Socolofsky, 2nd Vice-Pres.; Ellie Quinn, 1st Vice-Pres.; Cathy Gaston, President; Mrs. Shelby, Adviser; John Braymer, Beau.

"Do you really want to?"

This has been a very successful year for Uniteens. We had over 100 members and everyone helped make it fun. Our theme was "Reach out." We started the year off with a winning Kick-Off Party. Many people swam, and the officers did a skit. Freshmen got their big sisters at Initiation, and they helped them become better acquainted with the club. Uniteens members helped clean up the stadium after home football games. Poppy Sales were very successful and fun. Uniteens roamed the L.S.U. campus and collected over $200, so we got to keep approximately $50. A lot of hard work went into Teacher Appreciation Week. The teachers seemed to enjoy it, and we got several nice comments. Uniteens had a snow-cone booth at Sadie Hawkins Day and raised $23 for the Senior Class. Other projects sponsored by Uniteens included a Valentines Party, Peanut Pal Week, and Patriotism Week.

Hi-Y

HI-Y is an organization dedicated to serving both U-High and the community. Members of the club helped promote school spirit this year by selling spirit buttons before many important football and basketball games. HI-Y also helps clean up Bernie Moore Stadium after every home football game.

HI-Y's most obvious project is helping with hall duty. Every day before school and during lunch hour, HI-Y members can be seen throwing students out of the halls.

While working barricades during the L.S.U. rush a Key Clubber was very willing to help a girl move into her dorm. The members worked by selling Christmas trees and having stadium clean-up. The president is John Jumonville. John worked with the members to have a great bonfire.

F.H.A.

Month to month throughout the year, FHA members have been striving to "catch the brightest stars" and they've been doing quite well. As soon as the year started so did the action. It began with the Baton Rouge "Back-to-School" style show sponsored by D.H. Holmes. Next came the kick-off party, the Homecoming Pep-Breakfast, Sadie Hawkins, and, one of many Favorite F.H.A. activities, the "Happy Unbirthday Party." The cake and pie contest was a big success, and so was the Christmas night meeting where everyone ate, drank, and was merry.

F.H.A. Officers and Beaus: President-Janne Lord, 1st Vice Pres. - Kelly Richard, 2nd Vice Pres. - Cindy Greer, Treasurer - Margaret Gardiner, Secretary - Bryan Clark, Beaus, - Tim Armstrong, Chris Belleau, and John Jumonville.

F.B.L.A. And Art Club

Officers: Rachel Pourciau, President; Susan McDuff, Vice-President; John Munsell, Treasurer; Reporter, Jennifer McDowell; Jo Lynne Sedita, Secretary, not shown.

FBLA began the school year in the summer by preparing the school directory, which the members sold the first weeks of school. Then came the candy drive. Heath bars covered the school. In February members attended the district meeting in Hammond and later in the spring participated in the state convention in Baton Rouge. At the awards convocation FBLA presented its awards to the outstanding freshman boy and girl.

Members: Allyson Bahlinger, Steve Bivins, Rick Crawford, Ted Firnberg, Chris Grenier, Allen Hancock, Jennifer McDowell, Susan McDuff, Rodney Miller, John Munsell, Nancy Nolen, Rachel Pourciau, David Sauls, Jo Lynne Sedita, Mike Vickers. Advisor; Mrs. Mackey.

Getting Involved

Officers: Sondra Oliver, President; Geoff Gilbert, Vice-President; Linda Abraham, Secretary; Manya Peters, Treasurer; Ellie Quinn, Parliamentarian; Advisor, Mr. Davis.

This year Art Club decorated the Homecoming stands for the homecoming maids and also decorated for the Winter Formal. In the fall, the Art Club took a field trip around the Baton Rouge area to see the different art galleries. Art Club sponsored the end-of-the-year art show and also had an Art Mart. Art Club helped out at Sadie Hawkins by having a tattoo booth.

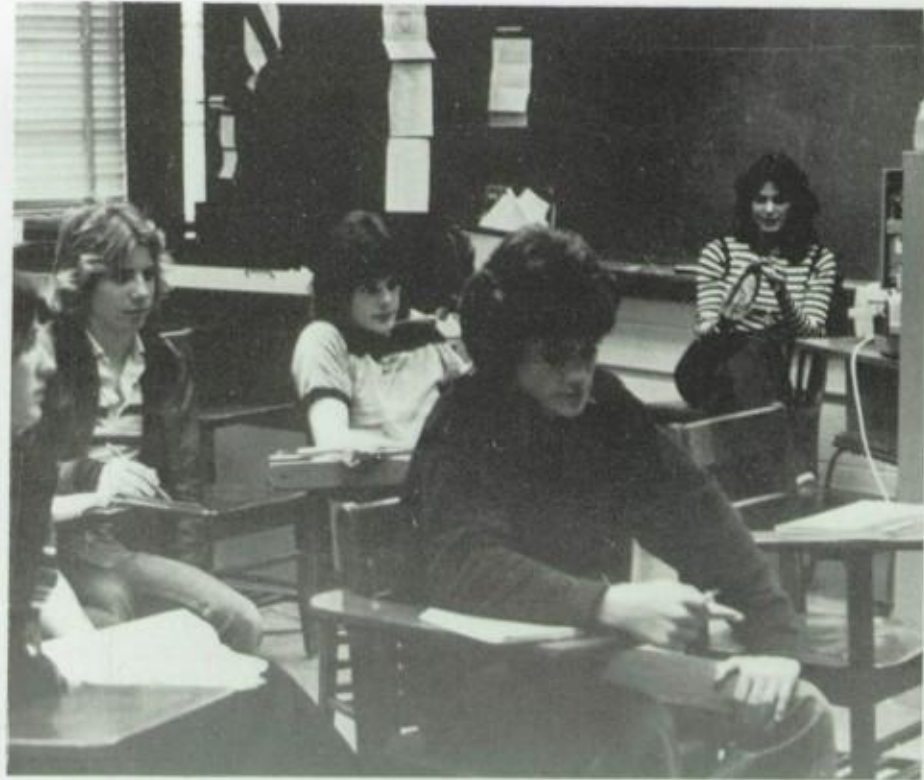

Art Club sets up for homecoming.

Spanish

The Spanish Club had a busy year. The members started out by electing new officers, and they were all freshmen. Renee Roberts headed the club with diligence and enthusiasm. The club planned and held a Christmas party at Pancho's. Senora Healy was always around if any help was needed. The club members held monthly meetings where they discussed matters pertaining to the Spanish Club.

I'm interested, sure, but what did she say?

French Club

Some of the members came back with Paris still on their minds. They met monthly and discussed important matters like parties. The club made eighty dollars at Sadie Hawkins. Beth led the club with perseverance. Madame Harris, the club sponsor, was always around when help was needed. The club had a Christmas party at Nan's house. Just in case you haven't guessed what this great club is, it's French Club.

University High School has several singing groups which provide students with an opportunity to enjoy singing in a structured atmosphere. All of the groups require much dedication on the part of the participant because many practices are during lunch or after school. There are almost 75 people who participate in the vocal music programs at U-High.

Concert Band Practices for Festival

Concert Band this year played a Christmas and a spring concert. The band played songs like "Symphonic Dance no. 3", Beethoven's Fifth, and Declaration Overture. YEARBOOK WORKSHOP: Colleen Daniel, Kay Fort, Dawn Harris, Vanessa Payne, Ellie Quinn, Theda Fuller.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' STATE: Curtis Creed, David Sauls, Janne Lord, Bryan Clark.

Some important people were chosen to represent U-High by taking part in various fields of activity this past year. Yearbook, Dance Group, and Majorette workshops were held this summer. The people who went to these workshops brought home new and different ideas to be used during the upcoming year. There was plenty of information to learn in the workshops.

Boys and Girls State was held over the summer, too. Four outstanding students were elected by their classmates. They learned how our government works.

The Student Council Convention was held this fall in Shreveport. The people who went exchanged ideas, made new friends, and prepared to get their schools in shape for the rest of the year.

On January 22, All Parish Band held its concert at Lee High. Ten students held this high honor.

Collage Staff

This year the staff of Collage, University High School's literary journal, began work in January on the 1977 issue, which will be distributed to all students in grades 7-12 in May. Collage contains short stories, poems, essays, and art work by junior high and high school students.

Yearbook Staff

11:30 p.m. and still working . . . 1:30 p.m. and still not through. What's this? It's a yearbook night meeting. What's a yearbook night meeting? It's a meeting where the staff gets together and tries to draw layouts, invent captions, and type body copy, for about one-third of the yearbook during the span of one night. "Pass the potato chips, please." "Can I have a brownie?" Junk food supplies the energy needed to give the yearbook staff "Brain power!" The yearbook staff enjoyed the long hours put into meeting the final deadline. After a long, hard night's work, the staff piled sleeping bags, books, the last few pages of the yearbook, and ten people into a compact Toyota and traveled down to Sambo's for an early breakfast — a traditional celebration to mark the ending of a productive night. This type of night meeting plus weekly meetings after school made for a total of over 500 hours worked by 20 dedicated staff members and 5 fantastic photographers.

Every morning promptly at 9:31, the student body of U-High is greeted with an angelic "Good morning," courtesy of Lydia Haile, student council president. The student council flourished under the competent leadership of "The Lydia." The council planned three dances — Homecoming, Eighth Grade, and the Winter Formal — during the year.

This year, for the first time, the council had one joint money-making project in lieu of individual class projects. All of the students at U-High worked together on the flea market, which was held on a Saturday in the U-High gym.

Moms' Club helped Student Council prepare for the flea market.

FACES

FACES are:

Fat or thin, young or old;
Some are timid, some are bold.
In classes they are lost in books.
At lunchtime they have carefree looks.
Sometimes smiling, sometimes sad,
Sometimes down, sometimes glad.

FACES are:

Learning at different paces,
Running in different races,
Faces are GOING PLACES!

Junior High — The Start

Much studying was done by the Junior High during exam time.

Patrick digs into his delicious cherry apple sauce.

Junior High girls take a break before heading up to class.

The Junior High Students experienced many new things this year, like EXAMS. They had to grow up and face many responsibilities. They showed mature actions in their work and play. These included working as a team in sports for boys and working as a group in clubs for the girls. They went through the good and bad of everything and ended up with a great year to show for it.

Seventh graders stroll in a leisurely way to Mrs. Pino's delicious lunches.

Seventh graders seem to be able to find more interesting things to do than listen to Dr. Fabre's lectures.

7-A OFFICERS: David Fremin, Treasurer; Michelle Garon, Secretary; Felice Means, Vice-President; Matthew Roberts, President; Mrs. Lentz, Adviser.

The seventh graders started the year with a grand tour of the building sponsored by the Student Council. Before long, they were taking trips to places such as the Arts and Science Center. There they saw Christmas trees from all over the world. They also saw such sights as the mummy on the ground floor and many designs and displays of scientific facts. The class 7-B won Cubbie Capers, thereby making U-High history. The seventh grade had a good year and is looking forward to the eighth grade.

The eighth graders enjoyed this year. The first exciting event was Cubbie Capers. The boys were on the field working hard for a win, while Junior FHA prepared for the club dance. Eighth graders worked hard as well as played hard, so they'll probably be ready for senior high next year. And all year they looked forward to the eighth-grade dance, the final exciting event of the year.

The Stars!

The Junior High was very active this year. All the students were eager to begin school, and all were eager to leave. But they still made good what was bad. Junior FHA reached its goal in its annual stationery sale, and the football team had a successful year. The seventh-graders adjusted to junior-high life, and the eighth-graders looked forward to Senior High. All in all, it was a good year.

Living with the Senior High

"My feet are tired. How're yours, Addie?"

Pushing your way from the end of the lunch line to the front; bumming 15¢ for a doughnut; staying after school for Boosters, football, yearbook, or whatever turned you on were just some of the many things high school students at U-High did for football games, spirit week, yearbook night meetings, Happy Un-Birthday Party. We, the students of U-High, went places. College, work, trade, or maybe even President, we, the high school students at U-High, are going places.

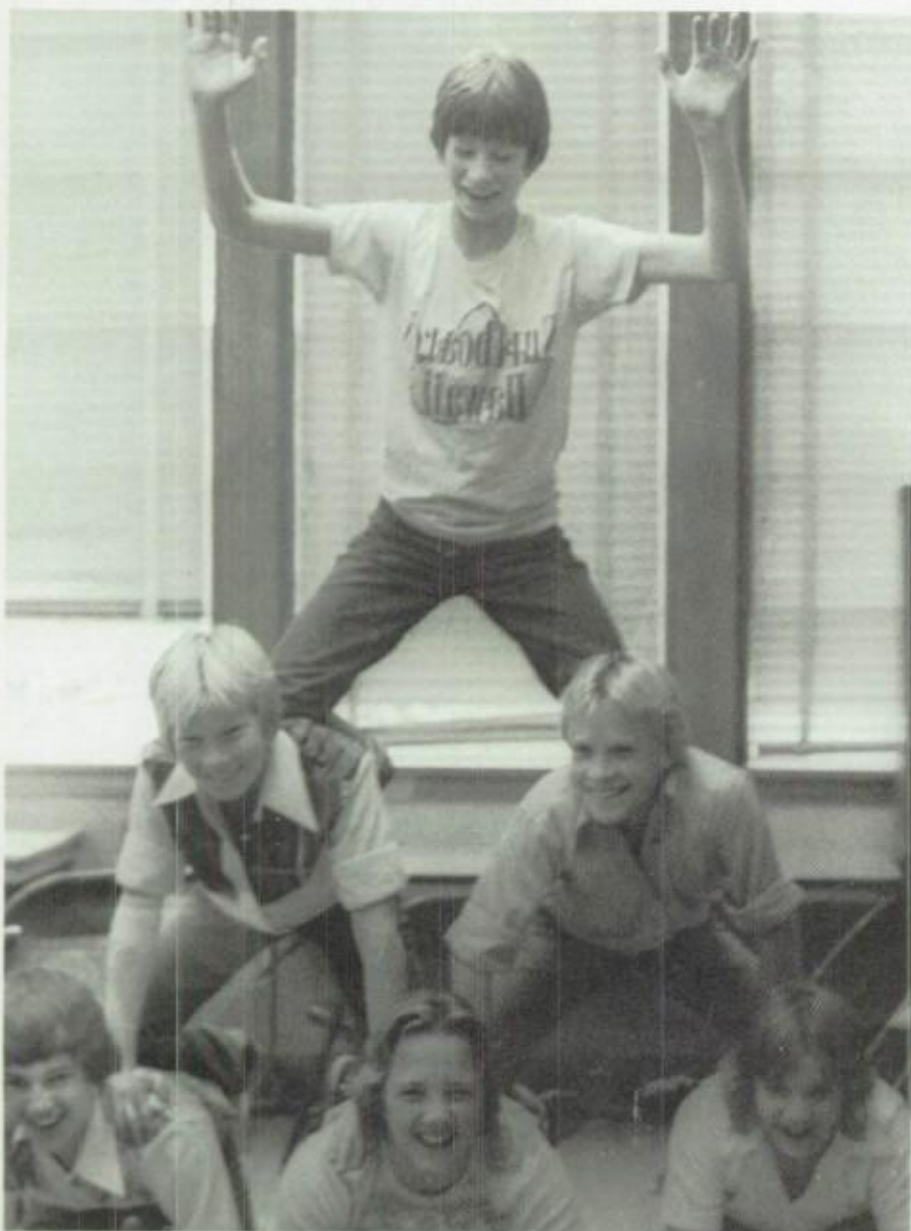

This isn't a pose. Or is it?"

The pizza was hot, but the party was not.

This was previously rehearsed.

"What? That's wrong?"

TAKE YOUR PICK CAPTION TIME: 1. U-High's Career Education Program in action. 2. "Why did Linda get two?" 3. Senior Specials specialize in smashing mirth. OR 4. Preparing for finals!

At the beginning of the year everyone got involved by joining such clubs as F.H.A., Un-iteens, F.B.L.A., and Art Club, helping with the school money raising project, and attending the Homecoming and Winter Formal.

The Baddest

We have a unique Sophomore class. The guys of the class amuse themselves and others by singing strange chants at lunch hour. The audience of girls replaces applause with giggling! Biology seems to be the favorite subject, so impelling that it brings the sophomores to school at 7:30 in the morning to write "I will be good in biology." This class maneuvered the great "garage sale" with such charm, captivity, and salesmanship that we predict a great future for the NEW JUNIORS!

"Ugh, I'll never make it through chemistry!" "Nessie, when are our senior rings coming in?" "Florida, here we come!" "Only one more year and we'll be . . . SENIORS!" These were common statements among this year's juniors. Juniors weren't without a few "minor" difficulties this year, such as Algebra II, pop quizzes, ACT tests, and the chemistry class. The Juniors of 1977 learned a new sense of responsibility and had high hopes for a great senior year.

Seniors of '77

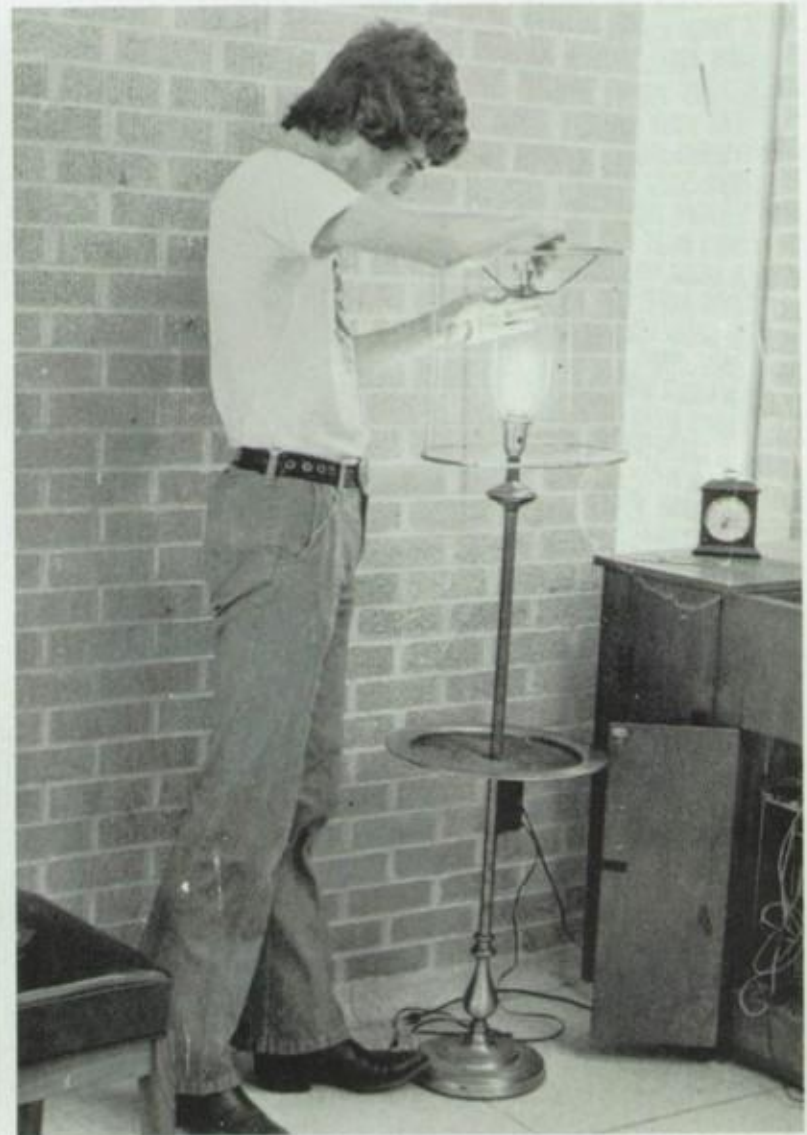

The Senior Class of '77 experienced the extra study hall, new people, and a new dreaded subject, chemistry, taught by Mrs. Horton. For the first time, the seniors elected two Senior Maids and a Queen for Homecoming. This year's Sadie Hawkins Day was a fabulous success. This success was partly due to the saloon, partly due to Porter Wagon Train and the Lonestar Longnecks, and partly due to a dunking booth that worked. The seniors made an astonishing come-from-behind effort to win Spirit Week by half a point. This was to the amazement of everyone except the seniors, who knew they would have to win someday. Basketball came next with its long hours of practice. Next came the Winter Formal. The name this year was "Fantasy and Frost." Once again, the senior class elected an extra couple, six instead of five. After that, the year flew by too swiftly for some and not fast enough for others because then came finals, Graduation, and the trip.

Janne Lord finally gets to enjoy the comforts of the Senior Activity room.
